

THE SHORT STORIES OF GABRIEL GARCÍA MÁRQUEZ

This course will focus on the short stories of Gabriel García Márquez, a Colombian Nobel Prize winner novelist, best known for his book One Hundred Years of Solitude. García Márquez influenced an entire generation of Spanish-speaking readers and writers in the Americas and Europe. He has also been called a "modern master of the short story." Each week students will be assigned a story to read and then discuss in class. Through Gabriel García Márquez's stories we will explore different aspects of Colombian culture.

Leader: Cecilia Rosenblum, born and educated in Bogota, Colombia, worked at ETS developing tests in English, Spanish, and French.

Fridays: 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, 6 weeks: September 29 through November 17 (no class 10/20 and 11/10).

Location: PSRC